- when the issue happened;
- your contact details and how you would like us to contact you.

What to expect next:

Immediately

Our aim is to resolve your complaint as quickly as possible but you will receive a response from us within 1 business day so you know we have received your complaint. This will contain your complaint reference number for your records and will help us find your information quickly should you need to contact us.

5 business days

If we have been unable to resolve your complaint within 5 business days, we will write to you and:

- explain why we have not managed to resolve your complaint;
- tell you how long we expect to take to resolve it;
- tell you who is dealing with your complaint.

10 business days

In the majority of cases, we will be able to resolve your complaint within 10 business days. If we have not resolved it within 10 business days, we will contact you to update you on the progress and tell you how much longer we anticipate it will take.

We will keep you informed of progress until your complaint has been resolved. In exceptional circumstances, where your complaint is particularly complex, matters may take longer to resolve but we will write to you to let you know we need longer.

Until end of investigation

When we have completed the investigation of your complaint, we will send you our final report of it. We will keep you informed in writing and we will let you know when you can expect to hear from us. In the unlikely event that we cannot complete our investigation within 35 working days, we will notify you and inform you of what steps you can take.
